

FRENCH ED HACK

PARLONS

LET'S TALK

A QUICK PROBLEM

OVERVIEW

- Immersion programs are in need of French-speaking teachers
- Current solutions are ineffective (job listings online)
- Lack of American Francophone community online

SOLUTION

Parlons will be a community driven network of French speakers cultivated by the French Embassy and other partners.

The community will provide networking opportunities and exposure to French culture, while also providing a dedicated market of Francophones for potential employers.

CULTURE

Create an environment where French speakers can gather together

GROW POOL

Increase visibility to grow the candidate pool..

PARTNERS

Leverage existing communities as well as partnerships with universities.

PARTNERS

- University study abroad advisors
- French language department heads and professors
- University scholarship offices and career centers

USERS

- Students studying abroad in France
- Students studying French language at universities
- Alumni interested in continuing their connections to French culture and language
